Dear Mr. McDonald:

I am pleased to acknowledge CBS Television Station's recent contribution of $5,000 on behalf of CBS4/WFOR to support minority scholarships in the School of Journalism and Mass Communication at Florida International University.

Philanthropic giving such as this plays a major role in supporting access to quality education. Your shared commitment to our students and the community we serve will not only help to foster educational excellence, but also to provide the broadcasting industry with talented, well-prepared professionals ready for the opportunity to succeed.

On behalf of the FIU Foundation Board of Directors, the Board of Trustees, Dean Lillian Lodge Kopenhaver, and the students who will ultimately benefit from your generosity, thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

[Signature of Marcos A. Perez]

Mrs. Nellie Rubio:

Hello Mrs. Rubio! My name is Belgica Santos. I have been awarded the CBS-4/WFOR—TV Scholarship in the amount of $1,000.00 for the 2007-2008 academic year from the School of Journalism and Mass Communication, at Florida International University. I am addressing you to thank you for making this wonderful donation. I am really grateful with you, for helping me to complete my college education. I did not have the opportunity of meeting you at the Annual SJMC Student Celebration that took place on April 5, 2007. I accepted the award on that date. My family is also very happy I won this scholarship, and I also want to pass along their thanks to you. I hope your donations keep helping students like me, in the future. I also wish you have a great summer, and once again thank you for donation.

Muchas gracias,

Belgica Santos

Dear Ms. Rubio:

On behalf of Florida International University (FIU), it is my pleasure to inform you that you have been nominated to receive the Cal Kovens Community Service Medallion. We would like to honor you during FIU's Fall Commencement exercises on Monday, December 17, 2007, at 7:30 p.m., in the FIU Pharmed Arena on our University Park campus. The FIU community, as well as the entire Greater Miami community, would be deeply honored if you accepted our invitation to receive this award. Your acceptance of this recognition enables FIU to honor you for your outstanding success and for the contributions you have made to FIU and the community.

During Fall Commencement, FIU will award nearly 2,500 degrees over five ceremonies, organized by schools and colleges. Your award would be conferred at the Commencement ceremony corresponding to the College of Business Administration, the School of Journalism and Mass Communication and the School of Hospitality and Tourism Management in which FIU will confer approximately 500 degrees before an audience of about 5,000. For all universities, Commencement is a special day in the life of the institution. It is an especially significant day at FIU since so many of the graduates are the first members of their families to earn a baccalaureate degree. For many, this achievement is a culmination of the hopes and dreams of the entire family.

I hope you will honor us by accepting our invitation to receive this award. It would be most significant for the University community and me to salute your leadership and achievements at an occasion where FIU recognizes the graduates who will become future leaders of our community and nation.

Respectfully,

Dear Shaun,

On behalf of The Education Fund, I am writing to express my sincere thanks to you, personally, and to your station for your continuing support of The Education Fund's initiatives in public education.

First, my thanks to you, for your personal contribution of $250 to support The Education Fund's Great American Teach-A-Thon, specifically through Robb Hanrahan's online giving site. Additionally, the television spots on your station helped us amass more than 2 million media impressions during the campaign, and we more than doubled our fundraising dollars. This was remarkable for a two-year-old campaign. Thank you for your support.

I'm also writing to thank you and your colleagues for your 45 computers (and 100 monitors), which have already been recycled and put into the homes of low-income families across Miami-Dade. Their children are also benefiting from their classroom curriculum that infuses technology in class work and homework.

Lastly, I want to convey my heartfelt gratitude for the ongoing support that WFOR CBS4 has provided to The Education Fund. I am especially grateful for Nelly Rubio's presence on our board of directors, including her role as an officer of the executive committee. Nelly's professionalism has advanced our organization in many strategic ways. I know my colleagues and our entire board would wholeheartedly agree that she is a true champion of public education and a great leader.

The Education Fund has made enormous strides during our 20+ years. CBS4 has played a major part in our accomplishments, and we could not have achieved all that we have without your support. We are enormously grateful for all you do!

Thank you again for your kindness and generosity.

Sincerely,

Dear Tom and Gail:

WFOR/WBFS file

Thank you for being a host committee member for our 2007 annual Silent Art Auction, The Art of Found Objects. The event was a great success and we appreciate that you lending your name to this important event.

This year's auction was attended by nearly 300 guests and raised close to $60,000. This funding will be used in large part to motivate students to higher achievement through visual art programs in Miami-Dade County Public Schools. It also helps our efforts to put supplies needed for student learning into the hands of teachers by providing funding to operate our free supplies warehouse. We were thrilled by the obvious caring and largess of individuals like you. We had so many attendees buy student and teacher art that we truly fulfilled our goal. We encouraged our students to express themselves while enriching our community with original works of art.

In fact, the wonderful results of the auction have encouraged us to begin planning for our 2008 Art Auction. Due to feedback we received, we will be moving this event back to the spring timeframe. Dear Shaun,

On behalf of The Education Fund, I am writing to express my sincere thanks to you and to your stations for your continuing support of The Education Fund's initiatives in public education.

Your stations' sponsorship for our 2007 Teach-A-Thon, a messaging awareness campaign about the importance of teaching and teaching quality, proved to be instrumental in the positive outreach of the campaign. During the summer months, WFOR, WBFS and My33 aired 63 15-second PSA-spots and 69 30-second PSA-spots, greatly assisting us in recruiting a record 333 business volunteers for our fall campaign. In the fall, 72 PSAs brought the message to millions of South Florida residents, supporting our volunteers and teachers in presenting the great work that has been achieved and the value our teaching professionals must hold.

Additionally, allowing anchor Eliot Rodriguez to participate in this campaign and work with the children at Fairlawn Elementary school was especially compelling. The impact he made in the lives of those children and the lessons he shared will last a lifetime. He further shared his thoughts about teaching and its value to our community on his weekend show.

We are very grateful for your station's leadership in our community and for the leadership you have shared with us by continuing to allow Nelly Rubio to be on our board of directors and executive committee. We have come to rely on her judgment, leadership and community focused perspective for everything we do.

The Education Fund could not achieve the accomplishments we have without the support of CBS4, WBFS and My33. We thank you for your continued generosity and support.

Sincerely,

Linda Lecht

I want to thank you for having been our host at our Annual Excellence Awards luncheon.

You made the event – you were incredibly funny, and you kept things moving and on time. Our employees had an awesome time thanks in great part to you and your great style. I won't even mention that your high school friend, Silvia, has been walking on Cloud Nine since the awards!! We had so many compliments!!

You certainly helped make the event "the best ever" (a quote from many employees). I know that many of our folks will now watch you on the morning news at CBS4/MY 33 as a result of meeting you.

Thank you again for having been such a willing emcee/host – and I hope you will be available next year!

Dear Nelly:

On behalf of Miami Dade College and the Miami International Film Festival, we would like to thank you for being part of the 2007 Festival. Once again a record number of theater-goers, actors, directors, journalists, corporate sponsors and film industry professionals gathered in Miami in March to celebrate the work of some of the best – and newest filmmakers from around the world.

The 2007 Festival presented ninety-two features and twenty short films from forty-three countries (a record!) including eight World Premieres, thirty-one International, North American and U.S. Premieres and forty-seven East Coast Premieres. In addition, the Festival presented its fifth Career Achievement Tribute to internationally acclaimed director Luc Besson. The audience was overwhelmingly receptive to the program of films, with three Ibero-American films acquiring distribution deals before the end of the Festival. The 2007 Festival also included the REEL Education Seminar Series, the fifth Miami Encuentros, and the second edition of the "MIFF Abroad" program.

We are enclosing our final report on the 2007 Festival with this letter. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions or comments. Preparations for the 2008 Festival have already begun and we hope you will consider being part of the Festival's 25th Anniversary next year. The tentative dates are Thursday, February 28 through Sunday, March 9, 2008.

Thank you again for your commitment and steadfast support of the Miami International Film Festival. Your generosity is gratefully appreciated.

Most sincerely,

Dear Nelly,

We would like to thank you for your participation as a media sponsor for the Mercedes-Benz Corporate Run events in Miami, Fort Lauderdale and West Palm Beach which benefits the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society of South Florida. As you know all three events together draw nearly 30,000 people, making it the largest road race in all of Florida and the third largest nationwide. Much of our success can be attributed to the support of CBS4/MY 33 and WTVX-34. I'm happy to see a broadcast company that still focuses on giving back to the local community. Dear Shaun:

On behalf of the Ad Council's Board of Directors, I would like to thank you for WBFS-TV's steadfast support of our PSAs. In 2006, your station demonstrated a remarkable commitment to public service by donating valuable and substantial airtime to the Ad Council's PSAs.

Your contribution enables the Ad Council to communicate public service messages that help raise awareness, change behaviors and ultimately, save lives. In appreciation, we have shed light on your wonderful support by mailing a letter to Congressman Diaz-Balart (please see enclosed). This is one small gesture we do every year to thank those select TV stations who have demonstrated an exemplary commitment to our PSAs.

We are happy to report that in 2006, the media--TV, cable, radio, newspaper, magazine, online, alternative and outdoor--donated more than $1.9 billion in time and space to our campaigns. It is only because of the collective and extraordinary generosity of stations such as WBFS-TV that we can proudly report such an impressive amount.

Moreover, broadcasters such as yourself allow the Ad Council to continue to communicate vitally important messages to local communities across the nation. Your support has been essential whether it's our Generous Nation campaign, which motivates Americans to give more of themselves in the course of their daily lives, our childhood obesity campaign or our "Boost" campaign, which motivates students to stay in high school.

For 65 years, the Ad Council's mission has been to leverage the power of the media and advertising communities to create positive social change. WBFS-TV's support and dedication to public service makes that possible and we are extremely grateful.

Should you have any questions or would like the Ad Council to send letters to any other Congressmembers in WBFS-TV's viewing area, please contact Danna Kulzer, the Ad Council's Director of Nonprofit and Government Affairs at dkulzer@adCouncil.org or (212) 984-1905.

Dear Congressman Diaz-Balart:

The Ad Council, the nation's largest provider of public service advertisements (PSAs), is pleased to inform you of the outstanding support our PSAs received from television station WBFS-TV (located in your Congressional district and owned by CBS Television Stations).

For sixty-five years, the Ad Council has relied on the pro bono resources of the advertising agency and media communities to deliver thousands of inspirational messages to the American people. Our PSA campaigns, created in partnership with our Federal Government and non profit sponsors, raise awareness, change behaviors and save lives.

However, the Ad Council's PSAs could never reach the public without the generous support of our media partners and stations like WBFS-TV. Rather than paying for airtime for our PSAs, we rely exclusively on donated advertising time from the media. We are delighted to report that in 2006, the media donated over $1.9 billion in free airtime and space – an unprecedented amount!

In 2006, WBFS-TV donated an impressive and substantial amount of airtime to our PSAs. Their steadfast commitment to public service allows the Ad Council to continue to communicate important messages to your constituents, helping the families and communities of your district.

Because of the media's remarkable generosity, the Ad Council is able to communicate critical messages to the public on a host of pressing issues, including preventing youth reckless driving, obesity prevention, promoting financial literacy and autism awareness. In addition, the media rallied behind the Ad Council's new PSA campaign Generous Nation, which inspires Americans to give more of themselves (volunteering and donating) over the course of their daily lives.

Please join me in commending WBFS-TV for using its valuable airtime to improve the lives of your constituents. You may contact the station at the following address:

Dear Tom,

On behalf of everyone at the Ad Council, it is my great pleasure to acknowledge your generous support of the Ad Council Miami Leadership Committee.

By participating in our strategy of engaging advertising and media leaders in top markets to collectively identify and endorse Ad Council public service campaigns that respond to issues of national public importance and local need, you are making a measurable difference in South Florida. Your efforts, in concert with your fellow Committee members and our regional Managing Director Kristina Corrales, are contributing to the significant increases we are seeing in donated media and public response to our campaigns.

The enduring success of the Ad Council lies with you and others like you who so generously donate their time and talent to stimulate action through communications programs that make a positive impact on our society.

Thank you for your kind support of the Ad Council. And thank you for allowing us to help you improve the lives of your friends and neighbors, and strengthen your community.

Dear Nelly,

The 24th edition of the Miami Book Fair International has just concluded and is being called a tremendous success, and definitely the most attended of all. One fairgoer was quoted in Monday's Miami Herald as saying that "You all have the best fair in the world!" Each of the eight days provided a vibrant, stimulating and culturally diverse celebration of the written word. With more than 450 participating authors and 250 exhibitors, this year was one of the most memorable in our history, marked by theatrical presentations, provocative discussions, heart-warming encounters with readers, the launch of the Translation Market, and the best weather in recent memory.

Hundreds of thousands of book lovers and children visited the Wolfson campus of Miami Dade College while the presence of international dignitaries enhanced the importance of our International Pavilions. Those who could not make it to downtown watched some of the authors via televised coverage on C-SPAN. Our press coverage was amplified by this year's media partnerships, as well as sponsorships from other national and local publications.

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Miami Book Fair International and the staff of the Florida Center for the Literary Arts, we would like to thank you for your contribution. Without your support we would not be able to continue producing and expanding the quality of this massive community event. We look forward to working with you once again as we prepare for the 25th Anniversary of Miami Book Fair International next November 9 - 16, 2008.

In the meantime, as we approach this special time of the year, we would like to wish you a joyous and peaceful holiday season!

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rodriguez,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to emcee the 2007 City of Doral State of the City Address. Your presentation was made with your usual style and flair which truly contributed to making the State of the City Address a top-rate experience.

If I can be of service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me and I look forward to working with you in future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Kennedy,

Chihuly at Fairchild was a blockbuster success! Many critics and visitors said it was the best art exhibit in South Florida since Christo's Surrounded Islands in 1983. Hundreds of thousands of adults and more than 35,000 school children attended. It gave Fairchild the perfect platform to promote and share its mission, which has allowed for tremendous growth in all of our program areas.

Now we have the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to exhibit the Pop art sculptures of Roy Lichtenstein. The six-month long exhibition will also showcase sculptures by other famous artists whom we have met because of the success of previous shows. Names will be announced in January 2008. Included in this group of sculptors is Dale Chihuly, who has returned to Fairchild with an installation of his glass sculptures in the Conservatory - Windows to the Tropics.

This tremendous exhibition, Roy Lichtenstein at Fairchild, will once again coincide with the opening of Art Basel on December 8, 2007, and will run through May 31, 2008.

We know you share our passion for Fairchild and we sincerely hope you will consider joining us once again as a supporter of the Roy Lichtenstein at Fairchild exhibition.

Enclosed please find the sponsorship benefits, which will go into more detail. Please contact either of us at the information below, or Suzanne Kores at 305.667.1651, ext. 3323 or skores@fairchildgarden.org or Jeremy Davit at 305.667.1651, ext 3377 or jdavit@fairchildgarden.org.
